HOLY LAND HARDBALL PG13

What happens when America's favorite pastime is introduced to Israel? Join us for the 15th Annual JFS Night at the Movies to see for yourself. This PG-13 movie is the saga of an entrepreneur who muscled the improbable Israel Baseball League into existence.

League founder Larry Baras is a Jewish bakery owner from Brookline, Massachusetts, with no prior sports management experience. In the words of directors Brett Rapkin and Erik Kestin, “Like a modern-day Moses in a baseball cap, Baras led a group of wandering, ballplaying dreamers (not to mention these filmmakers) to a sandy diamond they could call their own.”

The film received rave reviews from Variety, “You don’t have to understand a box score to embrace the crowd-pleasing national-pastime documentary HOLY LAND HARDBALL.”

Enjoy a pre-game reception at 5:45 p.m. at Suitable for Framing, 5800 Grove Avenue. Then make your way up the street to the Westhampton Theatre at 7:00 p.m. for the film and raffle. General admission tickets are $50, student tickets (with valid ID) are $25, raffle tickets are $60, and combo tickets (movie and raffle) are $100. All proceeds benefit JFS.

For tickets, please call 282-5644, ext. 0, email JFS at information@jfsrichmond.org, or join “JFS of Richmond, VA” on Facebook.
